PRESS RELEASE

Tuesday, September 08, 2015

The Natrona County Coroner along with the Casper Police Department is investigating the death of a 24 year old man found in the alley in back of the Elk's Club on Monday morning, September 7, 2015. After the legal next of kin are located and notified of the death, the identification of the deceased man will be released by the coroner. An autopsy will be scheduled later in the week to assist in determining the cause of death.
